

OXYGEN SERVICING – Theory & Practical

Course duration: 2 working hours Theory + 1 working hour Practical

Description:

The aim of training is to get theoretical and practical knowledge about oxygen servicing procedures and to get experience on filling oxygen system on the aircraft as well as filling removed oxygen bottles.

Objectives:

To gain advanced knowledge about oxygen systems involved, learn about safety procedures, emergency procedures and restrictions, and filling equipment and to gain practical skill conducting oxygen filling.

After completion of the course the student will receive a Certificate of Recognition (COR).